

OASH SOCIAL FOUNDATION

Organisation Profile

A Section 8 Company | Manora, Washim, Maharashtra, India

This profile is compiled from Oash Social Foundation's own regulatory filings and certificates (Certificate of Incorporation, Section 8 Licence, e-MOA/e-AOA, provisional 12A & 80G orders, NGO Darpan record, and PAN) as shared by the organisation, along with its public website. Original certificates should still be verified against the issuing authorities' portals (mca.gov.in, incometax.gov.in, ngodarpan.gov.in) before finalising any partnership.

About the Organisation

Oash Social Foundation is a not-for-profit Section 8 company incorporated under the Companies Act, 2013, based in Manora, Washim district, Maharashtra. It was incorporated on 12 August 2025 as a company limited by guarantee, initiated by a group of young changemakers from the local area.

The Foundation works across health, education, technology, legal awareness, women's empowerment, environment, and youth engagement, with an emphasis on building self-reliant, sustainable communities.

Objects of the Foundation

As set out in its e-Memorandum of Association, the Foundation's principal objects include:

- Promoting and supporting social welfare and development activities for underprivileged and marginalised communities.
- Providing education, training, and skill development for economically disadvantaged groups.
- Working toward poverty eradication through self-employment and entrepreneurship initiatives.
- Organising health camps, medical check-ups, and health awareness programs.
- Promoting gender equality and women's empowerment.
- Supporting child welfare, disaster relief, environmental conservation, digital literacy, and legal aid, among other allied objects.

The Foundation's objects extend across India. Under its MOA, all income and property must be applied solely toward these objects, and no profit, dividend, or benefit may be paid to members — consistent with its status as a Section 8 not-for-profit company.
